

Instructions for the Megan Pledge

Thanks for expressing your interest in the Megan Pledge. Our goal is to have 1,000,000 young people take one of our StopCyberbullying pledges. This material will help you get your program underway. In here you will find:

The-Megan-Pledge-Overview.pdf

An overview of the Megan pledge, what it is, what is expected, and very brief information about cyberbullying.

Megan's-Story.pdf

The story of Megan Meier, the inspiration for the Megan Pledge.

MegansPledge.pdf

The pledge that will be read, signed, and returned to WiredSafety to be included in the roster of those taking the pledge. Send all completed pledge sheets to:

Megan's-Story-and-the-Pledge.ppt

A powerpoint presentation about Megan Meier and the pledge that can be shared in the classroom, at meetings, or anywhere else you would like to spread the message.

Megan-Meier-Poster.jpeg

This image can be printed out as a poster to advertise the pledge program.

Megan-Banner.jpeg

This is the image you can use to print out or have a banner made for your school. Students taking the pledge sign the banner and it is displayed in the school. We would love to receive pictures of the students signing and displaying the pledge.

Megan-Letter-Head.jpeg

This image can be used on letters or information sent home to parents.

Megan-Ribbon.jpeg

This is an image of the ribbon that pledge takers can wear. The significance of the polka dots is that they were a favorite of Megan's. It can also be posted on websites and profiles. Facebook, Xanga, Bebo and Tagged are all going to be working with us to promote the pledge.

Ribbon-Instructions.pdf

Simple instructions of how you can create ribbons from material easily obtained from any craft store. Creating the ribbons is a great project to get students involved.

Teen-Cybersafety-Guide.pdf

Teens think they know it all about cybersafety, but just in case they aren't the geniuses they claim to be, here are a few tips to stay safe online.

How you go about running your school's campaign is up to you. Just be sure to send your completed pledges to Parry so that they can be added to the roster. Identifying your school, the adults supervising, and anything special you are doing is essential. We want to show off how much you and your students care. Help us do that with pictures and videos!

Please feel free to share your experiences, videos, and pictures with us by writing to Parry@Aftab.com or awolinsky@3dwriting.com.
