

Instructions for the Megan Pledge

Thanks for expressing your interest in the Megan Pledge. Our goal is to have 1,000,000 young people take one of our StopCyberbullying pledges by the end of the year. This material will help you get your program underway. In here you will find:

The Megan Pledge Overview.pdf

An overview of the Megan pledge, what it is, what is expected, and very brief information about cyberbullying.

Megan's Story.pdf

The story of Megan Meier, the inspiration for the Megan Pledge.

MegansPledge.pdf

The pledge that will be read, signed, and returned to WiredSafety to be included in the roster of those taking the pledge. Send all completed pledge sheets to:

Megan-Meier-Poster.jpg

This image can be printed out as a poster to advertise the pledge program.

Megan-Banner.jpg

This is the image you can use to print out or have a banner made for your school. Students taking the pledge sign the banner and it is displayed in the school. A picture of students signing and displaying the pledge should be sent to us.

Megan-Letter-Head.jpg

This image can be used on letters or information sent home to parents.

Megan-Ribbon.jpg

This is an image of the ribbon that pledge takers can wear. The significance of the polka dots is that they were a favorite of Megan's. It can also be posted on websites and profiles. Facebook, Xanga, Bebo and Tagged are all going to be working with us to promote the pledge.

Simple instructions of how you can create ribbons from material easily obtained from any craft store. Creating the ribbons is a great project to get students involved.

How you go about running your school's campaign is up to you. Just be sure to send your completed pledges to Parry so that they can be added to the roster. Identifying your school, the adults supervising the project and anything special you are doing is essential.

We want to show off how much you and your students care. Help us do that with pictures and videos.

Please feel free to share your experiences, videos and pictures with us by writing to Parry@aftab.com or awolinsky@3dwriting.com
